

KENT COUNTY Hospitality Association

OUR MISSION is to provide Kent County hospitality related businesses an opportunity to meet professionally with a common interest to better serve our industry and community while furthering the overall tourism landscape of our region.

MEMBER BENEFITS:

- Building relationships with various organizations
- Receiving industry updates and business opportunities
- Monthly networking opportunities with fellow hoteliers and vendors
- Educational and certification opportunities
- Building stronger communication between lodging facilities throughout Kent County
- Meetings held at area attractions and venues to keep members updated on latest developments
- Arranging new hotel and venue opening tours
- University and college scholarship and internship opportunities
- Website listing with logo and link
- Job postings and referrals
- Assisting with setting up interns via local colleges/universities
- Copy of annual membership list

KCHA holds memberships with the Michigan Lodging & Tourism Association and West Michigan Tourist Association while also maintaining relationships with Experience Grand Rapids, West Michigan Sports Commission, Michigan Cares for Tourism, Travel Michigan, Grand Rapids Community College-Secchia Institute for Culinary Education, Grand Valley State University and Ferris State University.

WHY JOIN KCHA?

“I attend many different organizations and have seldom experienced the great networking opportunities as those provided through KCHA ... to meet with as many as 70 different hotel representatives in one meeting is INCREDIBLE!”
